ITALIAN MACARONS

Florentine Macarons

From the 16th century, when Caterina de' Medici brought to France these sweets delicacies, macarons took their origins, or better their notoriety. Called maccarons, from the wording Maccarone, their origin is 100% Italian, where from the 8th century they were cooked for nobles families and served for special occasions. From Tuscany, the birthplace of De' Medici family, we're proud to re bring these colorful, delicately flavored crispy desserts, with a creamy heart, from the Italian tradition to our customers all over the world.

BISCOTTI

Kit — Homemade

If you like to bake homemade cookies for gifts for teachers, friends and neighbors, biscotti are a great choice. Biscotti are baked twice (in Italian Bis-cotto literally means baked twice), which gives them their dry, crunchy texture. The dough is first shaped into a log and baked. After the baked dough log cools, you slice it on the diagonal and bake the cookies a second time until they are crisp. The recipe we give you is so easy and you can make lots of different flavors of biscotti so that there is something everyone will like.

Coffee

ITALIAN COFFEE AND SWEETS PROJECT

The morning begins with a breakfast comprising a cookie paired with a delicious, milky coffee:

Cappuccino: equal parts espresso, steamed milk, and foamed milk.

Caffè latte: espresso with more steamed milk and less foam.

Latte macchiato: steamed milk "marked" with a splash of espresso.

Italians often sip a caffè as an afternoon pick-me-up or after a meal.

"Let's get a coffee!" Appropriate anytime, a caffè (or caffè normale) is simply an espresso, a small but strong shot of black coffee.

It can come together with a dessert: specaility cookies, biscotti or during Holiday Time Panettone.

Over the centuries, Italians have created a variety of alterations to the powerful punch of espresso. Branch out by brewing Caffè Corsini pairing with Borgo de' Medici Cookies and Cakes.

Caffè macchiato: For the softer side of coffee, enjoy this espresso "marked" with a splash of frothy milk.

Unlike the breakfast drinks, this lightly milky caffè can be enjoyed as frequently as caffè normale.

Caffè corretto: Literally translated to "corrected coffee," this drink features espresso with a splash of alcohol, such as grappa or sambuca.

Caffè americano: After trying drip coffee in the United States, Italians decided to offer tourists a taste of home. Their interpretation: espresso diluted with plenty of hot water.

Caffè lungo: This "long coffee" comprises espresso with a splash of hot water but is stronger than the americano.

SOFT BAKED BISCOTTI

It is hard to imagine a more fitting finale to a Tuscan meal than Cantucci (commonly called “Biscotti”). Traditionally, they are crunchy and crispy and contain almonds. Our original version is of a Soft Baked Biscotti that is very unique, and is made in the shape of traditional Tuscan Biscotti, but with a unique twist, born, like all great inventions, from a mistake: a secret ingredient.

SOFT BAKED BISCOTTI

The result sees the trademark crispness of Cantucci give way to a delicate softness that perfectly wraps itself around a sweet filling. To date, nobody has been able to recreate the mixture that makes these biscotti unique. These are the perfect gift for those looking for something unique and made with only the highest quality ingredients, or as the final course in any Holiday meal.

FLAVORED MERINGUES

Meringues

Nothing has been more delicate and sweet than a meringue. The most stable type of meringue is the Italian style, which is made by beating egg whites to firm peaks, then slowly whisking in hot sugar syrup to produce a dense meringue with a satiny texture that can be used as-is to top cakes and pies, or as a base for buttercream frosting.

A rain of sweetness

A real Chocolate Lust... They're called Sweet Truffles for their textured surface but mostly as if you'd look for a worthy opponent of truffle among sweets and confectionery you'd probably choose these incredible delicacies.

Rough surface with a creamy velvety intense chocolate inside, these bite size chocolate truffles are a sin of gluttony to be granted...

Caramelized Chestnuts is a typical product in Tuscany. The chestnuts are roasted while they are still fresh and then placed in the syrup made with sugar cane. Try the roasted chestnuts on their own, on gelato or to prepare your favourite desserts.

The best Christmas Dishes

Mushroom Tortellini and Truffle Ravioli are our most favourite dishes for the Holiday Dinners with family. We had the idea for these gourmet stuffed pasta dishes because they are such a winter warmer and the addition of truffle and porcini elevates them to something really special, great for any special occasion or the vegetarian of the group on Christmas Day!

ESSENTIAL TUSCAN STYLE SET

oil Tuscan style

Walking among our olive groves during the olive harvest, putting your hands in and seeing the oil gushing from the mill arouses unique emotions. Emotions that we have bottled, emotions that we want to give to you as well. Our extra virgin Tuscan IGP oil, of limited production, is the fruit of the production of the hills of our estate and expresses fruity and vegetal notes on tasting as well as showing a striking yellow color with green reflections. It is ideal for seasoning meat dishes and salads but also to be enjoyed on typical Tuscan bruschetta.

PUMPKIN STUFFED PASTA

Autumn in Tuscany

Autumn brings vibrant colors and mellow flavors to Italy's markets and, in Tuscany especially, Pumpkins to the table. In the Tuscan cuisine, Pumpkins are suitable for sweet and savory recipes. In a creamy risotto with a hint of black truffle to make it more interesting, combined with purple carrot to realize a pasta dough, or as filling for ravioli. Pumpkins go very well with spices to create delicious biscotti and cookies.

PAN de'MEDICI

Traditional Florentine Cake

Here comes Christmas and the chill of the December air in Florence is sweetened with the enticing aromas of artisan bakers making de' Medici's Bread, Pan de' Medici. This famous Florentine Christmas cake, baked artisanally, is a plain, naturally yeast-leavened, sweet bread perfumed with vanilla. Many competing stories claim to reveal the origins of Pan de' Medici. Some say a young baker invented the cake to impress his lover; others say the sweet cake was invented by a nun to impress her fellow sisters. Whichever it is, it is certainly a labour of love, as making such Cake is not a quick process. Pan de' Medici can be toasted for breakfast, eaten with coffee, dipped in vin santo for lunch, enjoyed with prosecco for aperitivo, and served as the closer for dinner, along with amaretto. This rich in butter cake is very versatile and can be used also in savory combination, such as truffle, salmon, foil gras or caviar. Enjoy your own Pan de' Medici this festive season.

Our Gin Infused Panettone has been awarded as INDYBEST as the best panettone in the UK market following the reviews of the newspaper Independent

“This was a big hit with our testers. Made in Italy using the traditional method and injected with gin syrup, this panettone is so beautifully wrapped and tied with ribbon, it already feels like a real treat for Christmas time or a gift for a gin fan. On opening, it smells immediately of gin with some subtle vanilla and spices, though not overpoweringly so. The texture is springy and pillowy soft with just the right level of moistness without being too sticky. It holds its shape well, is easy to slice and tastes subtly of juniper crossed with citrus. Very moreish and it's so light you'll easily need another slice.”

PANETTONE Spritz INFUSED

Whether you're a fan of Spritz cocktail or a lover of cake, this gorgeous Spritz Drunken Panettone ticks all the boxes for a tipsy festive treat. A traditional Italian sweet bread loaf that's soft and delicious, panettone is a lovely, lighter alternative to a traditional Christmas cake. Infused with the unique flavour of the most Italian Cocktail, it brings together both traditional and modern flavours to create a wonderfully moist and properly boozy cake that's perfect for sharing with friends and family. Presented in a beautifully gift-wrapped box, it would make a lovely gift for any Italian foodie or cocktail lover. Why not try serving with orange sorbet or a vanilla ice cream for a grown-up dessert, or create a fabulously boozy bread-and-butter pudding also for creative aperitif.

La Romana Sambuca is a liqueur obtained from a blend of natural essences including elderberry, green anise and star anise. It is produced through the distillation of green anise and star anise, which helps to give the liqueur an unmistakable taste and an intense aroma. After adding the elderberry extract, the distillate undergoes maceration and is then sweetened.

Our Romana Sambuca infused panettone is a delicious proposal for the holidays but which is a perfect dessert for the whole year!

Borgo de' Medici

Borgo de' Medici is a family-run company dedicated to producing a series of food specialties made in Tuscany and to promoting these gems, by distributing them with own trademark, in Italy and throughout the world. Our philosophy can be summed up in two simple words
“Living Tuscany”

For Borgo de' Medici, Tuscany has always been the starting point. All our raw materials, and culinary techniques originate within this territory, an area that has always supported history and traditions linked to the creation and exchange of handcrafted products. Our products represent a unique heritage that spotlights quality and variety. They are the result of an extraordinarily high level of handcrafted expertise which is quite difficult to achieve. Thus, these products are truly representative of a distinct territorial and historical identity.

Great to eat and interesting to think about.
